

Corporate Profile

Intellex is an industry leader in on-demand data visibility applications. Our XC3 Technology™ platform is built on ISO/IEC and EPCglobal standards to cost-effectively deliver industry leading extended range, memory, security and reliability. Our platform is comprised of high performance Integrated Circuits (IC), tags, reader modules and readers. Working closely with our industry partners, Intellex offers complete solutions for customers in multiple applications and markets, including: Cold Chain Management, Yard/Equipment Management, Aviation, Construction, Agriculture, Returnable Container Tracking, as well as other Asset Tracking applications.

Located in Santa Clara, CA, Intellex is privately held and has raised over $60 million in funding. Investors include Arcapita Ventures, New Venture Partners, Morgenthaler Ventures and the Woodside Fund.

XC3 Technology Advantage

Intellex new XC3 technology platform supports two industry leading RFID standards, ISO/IEC 18000-6:2010 and EPCglobal Class 1 Gen 2. The recently approved ISO/IEC Standard defines a new class of RFID technology called Battery Assisted Passive (BAP) RFID. Combining the best features of passive and active RFID, BAP RFID offers performance comparable to active RFID technology at a fraction of the cost. Intellex new XC3 Technology platform offers:

- Read and write range exceeding 100 meters
- Temperature sensor support for on-demand monitoring
- Robust performance under difficult RF conditions (e.g. around metal and liquids)
- 60 kbits of on-chip user memory,
- Secure multi-layer password protection and encrypted data exchange
